

Wellington cops CEO's award at BHL!

THIS YEAR, THE CEO's Award Of Excellence hosted on April 18, was one with a difference. Not only was the annual awards ceremony hosted a month later than usual; the selection process was one with a difference.

After much anticipation and good-natured inter-company debate, Banks Holdings Limited (BHL) CEO and Managing Director, Richard Cozier announced that forklift operator Wellington Greene had won the CEO's Award 2011.

The BHL chief explained the reason for the selection change during this the ninth year of the awards. "This year we altered the process slightly by adopting a recommendation by our Values Team – that recommendation requires the company Employees of the Year (EOYs) to meet under the chairmanship of the group EOY winner to review and select the next

● Continued on next page

BHL CEO and Managing Director, Richard Cozier (right) presenting the CEO's Awardee, BBC's forklift operator Wellington Greene with his prizes. (GP)

THE LONE FEMALE Employee of the Year recipient for this year, Nadia Haynes of Banks Holdings Ltd, receiving her award from BHL's Chief Finance Officer, Geoffrey Marshall. (GP)

EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR for Banks (Barbados) Breweries Ltd, Justin Corbin (left), receiving his award from Banks' Brewery Manager, Akash Ragbir. (GP)

What Wellington won!

- FORKLIFT OPERATOR Wellington Greene, the CEO's Awardee, won a host of well deserved prizes:
- An all-inclusive weekend for two at Turtle Beach Hotel
 - $1 000 in cash
 - A Waterford Crystal clock
 - A Certificate of Recognition
 - The CEO's Trophy – a Krystof Crystal Boston Footed Bowl
 - An all-expenses-paid seven-night cruise for two on the Carnival Liberty (Miami, Florida; fun day at sea; Cozumel, Mexico; Belize; Mahogany Bay, Isla Roatan, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands; fun day at sea; Miami, Florida)
 - Return tickets for two to Miami
 - US$500 spending money
 - One extra week of paid vacation.

BHL

Banks Holdings Limited

B

Banks

PINEHILL

DAIRY

EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR for Pinehill Dairy, Cleaton Parris (left), receiving his EOY award from PHD's Acting General Manager, William Haslett. (GP)