Banks Beer Congratulates Tridents on CPL Win

“We knew they would do it!”

This from Charles Walcott, Category Manager, Banks Holdings Limited after congratulating the Barbados Tridents on winning the 2014 Limacol CPL Tournament. In further commenting on the team’s success, he went on to express that the Beer of Barbados was extremely proud to be associated with the cricketing champions.

“Congratulations to the Barbados Tridents for securing the win. They performed expertly throughout the tournament and deserve this success. They certainly have the support of Banks Beer and we are proud to be alongside them as they celebrate their first win!”

In a match marred by showers at Warner Park in St. Kitts, the Tridents claimed victory over the Guyana Amazon Warriors by eight runs via the Duckworth-Lewis method.

Heavy rains persisted throughout the match which saw the Warriors unable to reach the target of 153.

The Tridents made an impressive 152 for six, off 20 overs with opening duo Dwayne Smith and Shoaib Malik making progress on the scoreboard. Shoaib Malik emerged Man of the Match after an impressive performance of four fours and two sixes, finishing with a total of 55 runs.

Barbadian fast bowler Jason Holder also performed superbly, claiming two wickets for 18 runs from his four overs.

Banks Beer is the official sponsor of the Barbados Tridents.
