

NEWS RELEASE
22/02/2007

Lisa Ridley-Paul heading BHL HR

LISA RIDLEY-PAUL has joined the BHL Corporate Division as Group Human Resources Manager effective February 1, 2007, and in so doing takes up the mantle of responsibility for the Group's Strategic Human Resources (HR) programmes.

Mrs. Ridley-Paul brings to the role some 10 years of relevant work experience in Human Resources Management both in an operational and consultancy capacity with leading Barbadian and other Caribbean firms. During this time she has successfully designed and implemented a range of HR programmes and initiatives encompassing recruitment, job evaluation, compensation, performance management, staff relations, as well as the development of HR policies and procedures to diverse groups.

Trained in Ontario Canada, Mrs. Ridley-Paul holds a Masters of Industrial Relations from Queens' University, as well as an honours degree in Psychology and Management from the University of Waterloo.

Commenting on her decision to join the BHL team, Mrs. Ridley-Paul said, "I was keen to be a part of a successful Barbadian company which is committed to excellence, not only in terms of production, and customer relationships, but also one that recognizes the value of solid relationships with employees."

Mrs. Ridley-Paul is a member of the Human Resources Management Association of Barbados (HRMAB), a Member of the Society of Human Resources Management (SHRM), U.S.A., and an accredited Consultant with the Office of Private Sector Reform, St. Lucia.

Mrs. Lisa Ridley-Paul is The BHL Group's new Human Resources Manager.